HSBC Market Outlook 2018

An HSBC event featuring analysts from 7 top Investment Houses

For the third consecutive year, HSBC organised the “HSBC Market Outlook” event, providing its Premier customers with an opportunity to hear a range of top international speakers analyzing the global macro-economic environment and the key trends and forecasts for government and corporate bond markets.

“HSBC Market Outlook 2018” featured Konstantinos Kamaris, Head of Global Markets HSBC Greece and analysts from 7 Investment Houses (BlackRock, Franklin Templeton Investments, HSBC Global Asset Management, J.P. Morgan Asset Management, Legg Mason, PIMCO and Schrodgers).

The event was held on 21 November at the Cultural Center “Hellenic World” and was well attended by more than 700 HSBC clients.

Stelios Pirpinias, Head of Retail Banking & Wealth Management and Marketing of HSBC Greece, said: “At HSBC we take our Premier Customers’ Personal economy personally. We are, therefore, committed to keeping them informed about the trends in the constantly changing global economic landscape. In this context, we organized tonight, for the third consecutive year, an event featuring top international speakers who shared their insights and views about the global markets’ challenges and opportunities.”
